The list, not the rush.

Muse Friday is planned, not panicked: she saves the pieces she loves in the lead-up to the 25th, so every choice is considered. Up to 60% off sitewide excluding the Suede Jacket.

YOUR CONTENT

Show us your list, not a haul.

What's on my list

Share the pieces on your list and link them through ShopMy or LTK, ready for the 25th.

One piece, many ways

Once a year. Never just worn once. Style it for the office, the party and every season after.

The try-on

Considered, not impulsive. Honest fit and sizing notes help your community choose pieces they'll keep.

The capsule edit

Build your capsule wardrobe from your list: a few key pieces that work together, season after season.

BEFORE YOU SHOOT

- Let your piece take centre stage, with elevated styling that complements it
- Steam it first so every seam and detail looks crisp
- Bright, natural light and a clean, uncluttered backdrop

IF YOU SHARE

- Please tag @oddmuselondon, so we don’t miss it!
- Link your piece and the rest of your list through ShopMy or LTK
- Share the early access link we'll send you on the 15th
- Share early: the longer their list, the more you earn
